Disentangled: Strange Things About Strings Pete Howells

What does a person do to alter the course of a troubled life? For the playful, young William Ashton the answer is in a kaleidoscope and the garden of mirrors. For Stringy Billy it's an unlikely friendship with a retired teacher. Seaton Redland's solution is the guitar. For Andrew Lewis it is something else altogether. The distinction between Emotional Disturbance, Personality Disorder and Identity Theft becomes indistinguishable when the main protagonists eventually meet at Reeney's behest. Only Reeney can help them all and yet her very existence is dependent on the others. Their lives are inextricably tied; bound by pain, misunderstanding, murder and a dark thread that attempts to link 'The Fool' to 'The Bearer of Truth'. Lee Johns seems to be the only one to survive. He is still out there somewhere.
