Jo Laguin's been having some rough times. First she finds angst at the office and then heartbreak at home.

And so it was with a heavy heart that Jo fled the city and exchanged her days at the office for those spent outdoors. Only, a new job wasn't the only thing the country had to offer this out of work artist... A chance encounter with a neighboring cowboy and wannabe beekeeper introduced a whole new interesting twist to her impromptu western holiday.

In this final chapter, Jo is torn between her old world that now wants her back, and this new one that she has only just begun to explore. Will it be the rough riding cowboy or her cheating husband?
