Cold Truth: Lou Mason Thriller Series Joel Goldman

If it bleeds, it leads and Gina Davenport's death led the local news that day.

News cameraman, Ted Phillips, captured the plunge of therapist and best selling author, Gina Davenport, from an eighth story window - live - on what had begun as a slow news day. The shattered glass fell like rain. The camera rolled. And Davenport lay mangled on the concrete as a dark pool of blood spread out from her head.

Was it suicide, or cold-blooded murder?

Attorney Lou Mason had no doubt it was murder. Suicides jump out of open windows. Murderers break the glass. He couldn't keep his mind off Gina Davenport's murder. How could he? When an enigmatic young woman turns herself in, claiming she murdered Davenport, Mason takes the case. But something about her story just doesn't add up. Trying to crack the case, Mason dives deep into a black market underworld -- one run on drugs and dirty money where truth comes at the highest possible price - life.

Cold Truth delivers riveting, page-turning twists and turns in the tradition of crime author James Patterson.
