Photographs and Memories Ingrid Croce

Photographs and Memories is a cookbook with a story. Along with creative American contemporary recipes that have made Croce's Restaurant and Jazz Bar a San Diego landmark, Ingrid Croce, the widow of the late singer-songwriter Jim Croce, also shares intimate recollections of her life and career with family photographs and personal stories. Ingrid's Photographs and Memories is not only a tribute to the great and talented legend Jim Croce, but a beautiful story. From a chef's perspective, the recipes are inviting and very approachable for the everyday cook. The photographs are natural and evoke a mouth-watering response. Simply put, I want to eat this food. Gary Danko, Chef/Owner Restaurant Gary Danko, San Francisco; Michelin Guide One-Star Rating, 2012 Ingrid's heartfelt memoir and cookbook is a reminder that good food tastes even better when it is based on the longing for family, and when it is served with the hospitality and love of a warm home. Danny Meyer, NYC restaurateur and author of Setting the Table
