What do you do when your job, your home and your marriage turn to dust? When Christina is discarded by her husband in favour of a younger woman, she finds herself on a train heading to Cumbria, intent on visiting a stone circle for a reason she can't understand. She meets Gabe, a gorgeous but lost soul and ends up staying at the farm where he works. The owner, Hugh, is a widower, grouchy at the world that took away his most precious possessions. Slowly, Christina becomes Chrissy, the feisty woman she was before she let life wear her down. Chrissy would love to hide in the farm forever. But then her husband appears...
