Being Glorified Together With Him: The Reward of the Inheritance Charlie Dines

Two decades ago a dear friend made the following comment to me over dinner: “We hold that eternal life is the gift of God apart from works, by grace through faith alone, but that inheritance of the kingdom will be a reward according to works.”

“The kingdom...a reward?” I had no idea of what he was talking about. However, my friend’s statement so arrested me that I began to study diligently in order to see if the Bible would confirm that this view is according to Christ.

The conclusions I have come to are recorded in this writing. It contains a message you will not likely hear preached from the pulpit next Sunday, nor will you learn about it in some Best Seller propped up for your notice in any local Christian bookstore.

Being Glorified Together With Him focuses upon the gospel of the kingdom; for Jesus says, “This gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come” (Matt. 24.14). Such a gospel is not a half-gospel; it is the whole counsel of God.

May the Lord help us to rightly understand His Word, His Ways, and things to come. This book will stir you up!

This work is also available in a Kindle Edition through Amazon.com.
