Frank Lloyd Wright contains more than 100 full-color and black-and-white photographs of exteriors and interiors of Wright's most admired buildings and many of his architectural plans and drawings. Included are some fascinating designs that were never executed, such as the plans for the San-Marcos-in-the-Desert resort complex in Chandler, Arizona. The informative text expands and develops themes already apparent in these photographs and drawings, and gives the reader a truer understanding of Wright's particular genius.
