Adaptable for instructors with various teaching styles, PROBLEMS IN CONTRACT LAW: Cases and Materials provides a balanced approach to traditional case analysis, problem-based instruction, and theoretical inquiry. Now in its Sixth Edition, this casebook offers a highly intelligent, contemporary treatment of contract law and maintains the success of its previous editions, in part, by including a variety of perspectives and contractual settings.

This edition retains the great features that have made the book a dependable source.

- It incorporates a balanced blend of traditional and contemporary cases
- It includes explanatory notes and text that help students place cases in a larger context and explore related points
- It offers significant treatment of the CISG
- It maintains the Fifth edition's reflection of complexity of current 21st century contract law with its varied strains and constant flux
- A companion statutory and case supplement is available for separate purchase: Rules of Contract Law.
- The Sixth Edition reorganizes chapters 2 and 3 dealing with the traditional basis for contract formation and liability under other theories
- It presents new material examining the strains increasingly exerted on the conventional contract law system over the past 10-15 years by new forms of contracting (electronic, etc.) and by the increased use of mandatory arbitration clauses in mass adhesion contracting (e.g., banks, communications providers, hospitals)
