Blossoms on a Rooftop Luba Czerhoniak Fedash

Luba Czerhoniak Fedash was born shortly before the beginning of World War II in the region of the Carpathian Mountains known as Lemkovyna, now part of Poland. Blossoms on a Rooftop is the exciting story of her early life, first as a child forced to grow up much too fast by the horrors of Nazi occupation, then as a young girl caught up in Vistula (Akcja Wisla), and finally as an immigrant teen trying to make a new life for herself in the United States. Luba's determination and her love of God and Nature saw her through to ultimate triumph over adversity and a happy life in her adopted country.
