Hannah thought, for all the good it did her, that Tom was the man for her. She never really could hit it off with guys, but Tom was different - he was special and she was sure he was Mister Right. But then she discovered she couldn't have been more wrong. She ends her live-in relationship with him and heads back to the university campus.

Alone and with nowhere to go, her backpack stuffed with everything she owns, Hannah feels salvation when she meets up with Kaylee and her roommate Cecilia. She instantly warms up to the attractive, flirty duo and readily accepts their invitation to friendship and their dorm room... But then these two lovely ladies have more than friendship in mind when they get Hannah in-between them. Is it what Hannah's been searching for all her life, her own kind, with whom she truly belongs?
