Northanger Abbey follows the coming of age of 17 year-old Gothic novel aficionado Catherine Morland, dealing with themes of growing up and social satire. The story follows Catherine, who is obsessed with gothic novels, on a family vacation to Bath, where meets new friends and suitors, but begins to see everyone as Gothic villains and victims, with amusing results.

* 'Love and Freindship' A juvenile story by Jane Austen, written when she was 14. Written in epistolary form (as a series of letters), it is thought to be one of the tales she wrote for the amusement of her family. It is a parody of romantic novels Austen read as a child, complete with the subtitle: "Deceived in Freindship and Betrayed in Love"

Despite her age, the story shows Austen's sharp wit and clever storytelling prowess.

As a bonus, you also receive other Austen early writings.

* 'A Memoir of Jane Austen' A Jane Austen biography, written by her nephew James Edward Austen-Leigh
