The Dimensional Shift Trilogy is now offered in an Omnibus edition for those wishing to save a couple dollars on the three volumes. The story spans seven decades in the lives of Kelt Nelby and Akhi Richmond.

First Step: A catastrophic infection of land based plant life motivates a wealthy investor and his colleagues to make the ultimate push for survival. He, his daughter, and a brilliant young team of scientists do the unthinkable. They take the first step off planet Earth. The story is a fresh look at science fiction set in the very near future. Stone creates unique technologies, an alternative history, and weaves together a compelling number of disassociated threads to craft a very readable dystopian saga.

Waters of Babylon: Some 22,000 people parked in space struggle to save what's left of dying earth. Kelt Nelby attempts to learn the secrets of an ancient artifact which may hold the clues to restore Earth's plant life. Separated by a lethal virus, his soul mate, Akhi Richmond, battles to keep humanity from perishing in the cities floating far above the Earth's surface. While humans on earth exterminate each other, only a very few will find the means for humanity's survival.

Millenarians: A secret breed of humans has banded together to revive the Earth from a post-apocalyptic viral plant infection. They have superior intellect and unrivaled life expectancy. However, they do not know who they are. As they become known as the world's greatest arbitrators, their secrets unfold. A curious ancient artifact reveals its true nature. Survivors from a destroyed world clash. The founder of their species is revealed.
