Kiss Me Twice is a novel told in two parts. Part 1 is available September 23, and Part 2 is available September 30.

She wasn't looking for a man at all...yet somehow, she found two.

Adele Cavanaugh is finally moving past the tragedy that tore her world apart. She's happy for the first time in what feels like forever, but knows better than most that life can throw you a curveball. Still, she's determined to focus on the good things in her life, mainly the two very different men who have her heart.

Dorian and Mal both love the same girl, but are struggling to define their own relationship. Dorian's rock band has an opportunity to make it big, but it could take him away. Mal is struggling to reconcile the person he once was with the man he could be.

There are too many hearts on the line... and all three question if they can make it in a world set up to run two by two. But when terrible ghosts from Adele's past rise up again, both men come running to protect the woman they love.

Please note: this story includes some boy-on-boy kissing, a scheming ex-fiance, and of course, Humper the cat.

Kiss Me Twice is the continuation of the story started in Three Little Words. It is a novel told in two parts, and it has a cliffhanger. If you missed it... it has a cliffhanger.
