Lies at Midnight: A Heart of Darkness Ginny Bitters

Approaching midnight, a man sits at his wife's bedside waiting for her to die. Cancer takes its victims too slowly at the end. His name is Edward. He is an established and respectable member of his local community; he is seen as solid, reliable and above all decent. But as he waits he has things he needs to say if he wants to become the person he so longs to be. For the first time he reveals his deeper self to his wife...but what is truth and what are Lies at Midnight?

A dark and disturbing story about the self that we present to the world, and the murkier self which often lurks deep inside...and the choices we make between them.
