Traffic Board Book: A Book About Opposites Betsy Maestro

This eye-catching book about the little pink car on the go makes a perfect learning tool to introduce the concept of opposites. Full of bright graphics that will appeal to the youngest reader, this collection of first words is a great point-and-say book with plenty of objects for your child to recognize. Follow the car as it passes empty trucks and full trucks, drives on narrow roads and wide roads, all through the day and the night, until it is finally home.

An ALA Notable Book

Traffic is an accessible and kid-friendly approach to learning important first words and teaching opposites using eye-catching illustrations and one of preschoolers' favorite topics -- things that go!
