I Will Meet You There S M Harding

When Win Kirkland left the Marine Corps Intelligence Agency after twenty-five years, she thought she'd left war behind. But a sniper's shot through her front window soon ends the tranquility she'd been seeking. It also brings Sheriff Sarah Barrow Pitt-her one time best friend-back into her life.

For her part, the Sheriff has fought crime her entire life. But her latest battle seems to be keeping her own job in a deeply conservative area. She and Win were once close, until an unguarded moment profoundly altered their friendship. Now Win is in trouble-and doesn't want her help.

As evils of the past and present threaten to engulf them both, admitting to their feelings might just pose the most dangerous risk of all.
