A Fight For Freedom: An African American's Challenge Nelson Frederick

The author of this book takes you on a journey with her to fulfill her mission to recover from her addiction to “other people’s,” knowledge of God! When she found herself believing but not really knowing the God she was taught to serve, she set out on a mission to know GOD! She takes you on a journey during the tent revivals in the early 70’s, the troubled water sermons, and some of the most deceitful healing services ever known; how does one truly find God in the mist of being flimflammed, deceived, and traumatized? Although she suffers through many life lessons, she finds God in the most simple, powerful, awesome place, the secret was within her all the time. Her journey is filled with resources for the reader to expand his or her own knowledge.
