Problems and Materials on Secured Transactions (Casebook) Douglas J. Whaley

The Seventh Edition, Problems and Materials on Secured Transactions, continues to be the best choice for courses in secured transactions law. In a problems-based format, this brief, clear text presents a practical, straightforward approach to the topic, making it popular among students and instructors alike.

This edition retains the great features that earned it widespread recognition in its previous editions:

- thorough and up-to-date coverage on black letter law
- flexible content and organization, making it adaptable to many teaching styles
- a popular problems-approach which tackles the material in a straightforward and practical manner
- the distinguished author Douglas J. Whaley, who draws on his experience in teaching, writing, and practice
- a clear and lucid writing style and a manageable length, offering a concise, efficient, and effective format
- inclusion of the most important cases, which illustrate the reactions of the courts to the issues
- a carefully constructed Teacher's Manual includes answers to all problems in the text

The Seventh Edition incorporates many significant developments since the publication of the previous edition, including:

- new Bankruptcy Code provisions
- new cases that have arisen since the previous edition: - Border State Bank of Greenbush v. Bagley Livestock Exchange, Inc. (discussing the meaning of rights in the collateral) - Metzger v. Americredit Financial Services, Inc. (certificate of title for motor vehicles priority) - R & J of Tennessee, Inc. v. Blankenship-Melton Real Estate, Inc., and Coxall v. Clover Commercial Corp. (repossession and resale issues)
- updated problems, including a new problem at end of Chapter 2 exploring additional § 9-109 exclusions from Article 9 coverage
